

Japanese Film Screening with English Subtitles

©1950 TOHO CO.,LTD.

About Story : Melodrama helmed by Ozu Yasujiro that captures Japanese beauty while depicting pained yet beautiful human events. First film directed by Ozu away from Shochiku.

(Refer to 'Japanese Film Database')

Directed by: Ozu Yasujiro

Cast: Tanaka Kinuyo, Takamine Hideko, Uehara Ken

SHINTOHO / 1950 / 112 min. / Black & White / 35 mm

The Munekata Sisters

Free Admission

Advance booking is required.
Participant Limit: 350

Date: Wednesday, December 6th, 2023
14:00- (doors open at 13:00)

Venue: Main Hall, Kyoto Institute,
Library and Archives (KILA)

Advance booking

Apply via telephone or e-mail during the application period; up to 2 persons per application

Please note that names and contact numbers of all applicants are necessary.

Applications will no longer be accepted once all the places have been taken.

Where to apply: General Information and
Consultation Center for Citizens (Kyotofu Sogo Madoguchi)

☎ 075-411-5000 ✉ 411-5000@pref.kyoto.lg.jp

Weekdays 9:00 to 17:00

Application Period

November 1st to
November 30th, 2023

Access

From JR or Kintetsu Kyoto Station, and Hankyu Karasuma Station take the Kyoto City Subway Karasuma Line to Kitayama Station, take Exit 1, and walk south for about 4 minutes.

Please check our website (<https://rekisaikan.jp/>) for the latest information.
Please use public transportation services such as subway and buses.